

Cleveland Architects

Blackall & Page

Birth/Established: 1902 Death/Dissolved: 1913

Biography:

This firm was opened in 1902 with offices in the Scofield Building. It is listed in Cleveland City Directories until 1913. Clarence Blackall remained in Boston while George Page lived and worked in Cleveland.

Building List

| Structure | Date | Address | City | State | Status |
|--|------|------------------------|-----------|-------|------------|
| William A. Harshaw Residence | 1902 | 11440 Juniper Drive | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Second German Baptist Church | 1904 | 1643 East 55th Street | Cleveland | OH | Standing |
| Two residences on Lincoln Avenue near Euclid | 1904 | | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Commercial Building for German Baptist Publication Society | 1905 | 1706 East 38th Street | Cleveland | OH | Standing |
| Antioch Baptist Church | 1905 | | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Terrace for C. E. Adams | 1905 | | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Terrace for H. S. Janes | 1905 | | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Keemar Terrace | 1905 | 10079-99 Keemar Court | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Office building for Ohio Ceramic Engineering | 1905 | | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| American Auto Club Store and Garage | 1907 | | Cleveland | OH | Demolished |
| Ben T. Quilling Residence | 1908 | 1575 East 108th Street | Cleveland | OH | Standing |

Sources:

Cleveland Town Topics 12.2.1908 50:17; 12.19.1908 51:4

Cleveland Town Topics Dec 12, 1908, 50:7

Cleveland Town Topics Dec 19, 1908, 51:14