

Cleveland Architects

Arthur C Yost

Birth/Established: February 18, 1895 Death/Dissolved: April 17, 1973

Affiliation: Richardson & Yost

Biography:

Arthur C. Yost was a Cleveland-born architect. He graduated from Cleveland public schools, Case Institute of Technology, the Chicago Institute of Art, and attended the Sorbonne Institute. He was a member of the firm of Richardson and Yost. He later moved to Holland, Michigan where he was a member of the Blue Lodge, the Scottish Rite, the Shrine Al Chymia Temple and Grace Episcopal Church.

Building List