

Cleveland Architects

Andrew D Kent

Birth/Established: June 1831 Death/Dissolved: August 25, 1902

Biography:

Andrew D. Kent was a builder, later turned architect, with roots in the town of Newburgh before its annexation to Cleveland. Most of his buildings are located in the southeast side of the city. His most significant works were the Jones Road Congregational Church (1876) and the Disciples of Christ Church (1889) at 9200 Miles Avenue.

Building List

Structure	Date	Address	City	State	Statue
Jones Road Congregational Church	1876	8000 Jones Road	Cleveland	OH	Standing
Residence for Mary Mutch	1888	7207 Claasen Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Demolished 2016
Residence for Mary Mutch	1888	7211 Claasen Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Demolished 2015
Disciples of Christ Church	1889	9200 Miles Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Standing
Commercial-Residential Building for Dr. Hawley	1890	5642-4 Broadway	Cleveland	OH	Demolished
Residence for John Pallister	1891	3754 Independence Road	Cleveland	OH	Demolished

Sources:

Buried West Warrensville Cemetery - Warrensville, Ohio

Cleveland City Directories 1878 - 1899

Cleveland Necrology file

Funeral Disciple Church -Miles Avenue

Resided 26 Eben Street