

Cleveland Architects

Gordon W. Lloyd

Birth/Established: 1832 Death/Dissolved: December 23, 1904

Biography:

Gordon Lloyd was an English-born architect based in Detroit, Michigan. He lived across the river in Windsor, Ontario. He was a leading architect of Episcopal churches and cathedrals throughout the Midwest. He designed two significant buildings in Cleveland, St. Paul's Episcopal Church and the National City Bank Building (demolished).

Building List

Structure	Date	Address	City	State	Status
University of Detroit			Detroit	MI	Standing
Christ P. E. Church	1863	960 East Jefferson Street	Detroit	MI	Standing
Cathedral of St. Paul	1866	134 West 7th Street	Erie	PA	Standing
Church of Good Shepherd	1869	101 Walnut Street	Allegan	MI	Standing
Trinity Cathedral	1869	125 East Broad Street	Columbus	OH	Standing
St. Paul's Episcopal Church	1869	317 East Liberty Street	Medina	OH	Standing
Trinity Cathedral	1870-1	328 Sixth Avenue	Pittsburgh	PA	Standing
Church of the Holy Spirit	1871		Gambier	OH	Standing
St. John's Anglican Church	1872	3305 Sandwich Street	Windsor	Ontario	Standing
St. Paul's Episcopal Church (later St. Paul's Shrine)	1874	4410 Euclid Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Standing
Central Methodist Church	1875		Detroit	MI	Standing
Grace Episcopal Church	1875		Galion	OH	Standing
Bank building	1883		Cleveland	OH	Demolished
Parker Block	1883	1075 Woodward Avenue	Detroit	MI	Demolished
Northern Michigan Assylum	1885		Traverse City	MI	Standing
D. M. Ferry and Company Warehouse	1887		Detroit	MI	Standing
Dowling Hall	1887	661 East Jefferson	Detroit	MI	Standing
David Whitney Jr. Residence	1887	4421 Woodward Avenue	Detroit	MI	Standing