

Cleveland Architects

Sargent & Lundy

Birth/Established: N/A Death/Dissolved: N/A

Biography:

Sargent & Lundy was a Chicago firm comprised of Frederick Sargent and Ayres D. Lundy. They are described as Mechanical and Electrical Engineers in the 1900 Chicago City Directory. Their addition to the Cleveland Railway Company Powerhouse (Woodland Avenue and West Side Street Railway) is their only known Cleveland building.

Building List

Structure	Date	Address	City	State	Statue
Powerhouse Addition for Cleveland Railway Company	1900	1153 Washington Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Standing

Sources:

Chicago City Directory, 1900.