

Cleveland Architects

A. W. Rust

Birth/Established: N/A Death/Dissolved: N/A

Biography:

Born Add W. Rust, circa 1865, he spent his early life and much of his later life in Lake County. Rust first appears in Cleveland City Directories in 1888 (as a stenographer), and in 1890 he first appears as an architect. In 1892, the firm was called A. W. Rust & Bro. and included his brother Truman H. Rust. The firm later became known as the A. W. Rust Company. His brother Elisha Rust was one of the principals. He designed the original Beehive School for Warrensville Township in 1916.

Building List

Structure	Date	Address	City	State	Statue
Boarding House for Charles C. Crumb	1891	5115-9 Euclid Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Demolished
A. W. Rust Residence	1891	1945 East 69th Street	Cleveland	OH	Demolished
Residence for Susan Morgan	1891	1953 East 69th Street	Cleveland	OH	Demolished
Residence for John C. Alexander	1891	4073 East 71st Street	Cleveland	OH	Demolished
Asa Adams Residence	1892	1928 East 69th Street	Cleveland	OH	Demolished
Residence for Harry L. Sterling	1892	8508 Cedar Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Demolished
Beehive School	1916	4345 Lee Road	Cleveland	OH	Demolished