George Evans Mitchell

Birth/Established: September 23, 1888 Death/Dissolved: March 11, 1992

Biography:

George Evans Mitchell was an architect of many public buildings and schools. He was born in Aurora, Indiana and studied at Carnegie-Mellon University. He was a partner at Frank, Wagner and Mitchell (1916-1920) before working in the offices of Franz C. Warner as a designer and later an architect (1921-1928). Walter McCornack had joined the firm in 1925 and in 1928 Mitchell became a partner in Warner McCornack & Mitchell. McCornack left later that year and the firm became Warner & Mitchell. In 1940, he formed J Gordon Trumbull Inc of which he was President. He designed war plants, including an aircraft plant. He also painted watercolors. He retired in 1958. He lived until the age of 103, and died in Fort Myers, Florida.
